

Appointment of Principal Moderator

Entry Pathways (WJEC/Eduqas) Creative, Media and Performance Arts: Drama

A Principal Moderator for Entry Pathways (WJEC) Drama is required. The successful applicant will be required to liaise closely with the Drama team and ensure that requirements of this qualification are fully met. He/she will be expected to contribute to the training of moderators, leading the standardisation process at the moderators' conference. He/she will also be expected to contribute to the production of Exemplar material.

Responsibilities of Principal Moderators

The Principal Moderator is responsible for the standards for moderation of the internally assessed work of centres. The Principal Moderator must:

- advise on the appointment, training and reappointment, where necessary, of team leaders and moderators
- attend and supervise the moderators' conferences and/or meetings for selection of standardising items as appropriate, and attend awarding meetings as required by WJEC
- supervise the work of the members of his/her team and scrutinise, by sampling, the marking standards of moderators
- monitor the standards of all the moderators for the unit, including, where necessary, any assistant moderators and team leaders, and take appropriate steps to ensure accuracy and consistency
- oversee and approve the reports for centres prepared by moderators
- prepare an overall report on the unit to a format that is defined by WJEC
- be available to carry out review marking at each session as required by WJEC for Enquiries about Results during the relevant periods

The post of Principal Moderator is central to the functioning of the qualification and requires a significant time commitment. Principal Moderators need to be available for a minimum of three days a year which may be during term time, at weekends and during holiday time. Release payments to centres are available. This will enable the post holder to attend the moderator's conference and preparation meetings.

Experience/qualifications needed

- educated to degree level.
- relevant teaching experience
- experience of moderation for awarding organisations
- experience of managing people
- the ability to work well under pressure
- excellent written and verbal communication skills
