

Writer of Specification for WJEC Level 2 Sustainability in Practice: Future Changemakers

We are currently looking to expand our team of innovative writers able to support the development of the Level 2 Sustainability in Practice qualification. This qualification sits within the WJEC suite of Sustainability qualifications that has been developed in collaboration with the Future Generation Commissioner for Wales to support the Well-being of Future Generations Act (Wales), Curriculum for Wales and the United Nations' Sustainable Development Goals.

WJEC Level 2 Sustainability in Practice: Future Changemakers:

- is a project-based qualification, designed to build on learner's knowledge of sustainability
- specifically focuses on the development of skills within project management, change management and planning
- enables learners to take action within their settings, with a focus on the application of sustainability principles and practices
- requires learners to reflect on the outcomes and impact achieved through their project.

If you would like to be considered for future opportunities to contribute to the development of this qualification for Wales, apply now.
