1. Arrangements for Summer 2024

For the summer 2024 exam series, AS and A level qualifications will return to pre-pandemic approaches. This means that no advance information will be provided and there will not be a midway grading policy as there was in 2022 and 2023. Grades will be awarded in line with the summer 2019 outcomes.

GCE English Literature:

Please be aware that for Unit 3, Section B of the A level English Literature paper, the layout of the question will be slightly different in summer 2024. An example of how the summer 2023 question would have looked had the same layout been applied is below:

6. Compare the presentation of journeys in Poem A: 'Troop Train Returning' by Les Murray and in one other poem from the list below:

Poem B: 'Enlli' by Christine Evans

Poem C: 'Penitence' by John Burnside

Poem D: 'Driving in Fog' by Robert Minhinnick.

2. Resources

Remember that the papers and mark schemes from the summer 2023 series are available to view on our secure website. If you don't have access, please contact your exams officer.

For each of our GCE English qualifications, there are examples of responses to the summer 2023 papers on the subject-specific website.

We also have a catalogue of the available exemplar material from previous exam series which you can also access via the subject-specific website and by clicking on the 'Key Documents' tab. The catalogue can be found in the 'Exemplars' folder.

For each of our GCE English qualifications, our support teams have created Resource Guides for each of our subject areas:

- GCE English Language
- GCE English Language and Literature
- GCE English Literature

These are essential dynamic documents for teachers as they curate the key support, guidance and resources offered by WJEC.

Remember to access the wide range of free digital resources available on the Digital Resources website to support the delivery of our English qualifications. Some recent additions to this site include:

GCE English Language:

Knowledge Organisers: written by Sara Thorne, a collection of sample knowledge organisers to support the learning of A level Language covering open word classes, phrases and spoken language.

These could be used for revision or as a starting point for creating your own knowledge organisers.

WJEC GCE English Language Resources Guide

This booklet provides an overview of the support, guidance and resources available to those teaching the WJEC GCE English Language specification across our suite of websites.

Subject webpage The WJEC GCE English Language subject webpage on the Edpages website is the starting place for anyone teaching the specification and contains a range of official documentation relating to the qualification including the specification, sample assessment materials and past papers.	Secure website The secure website gives teachers access to past papers and marking schemes ahead of their publication on the public website as well as access to other resources such as the NEA standardising videos.  For teachers to access the secure website, they will need a username and password, which can be set up by their Examinations Officer.
Online Exam Review The Online Exam Review website hosts marked examination exemplar in an interactive digital format.	Educational Resources The Educational Resources website hosts free digital resources created by our dedicated team of subject experts and web developers to support the teaching and learning of WJEC qualifications.

On the GCE English Language page, you will find a series of student booklets for teachers to use as part of any blended or flipped learning approaches.

These editable materials collate many of the activities we have produced over the years in thematic booklets. These aim to support students develop their understanding of six different aspects of language study either working independently or as part of a curated programme put together by teachers to try to cover some learning remotely.

-  Understanding Spoken Language
-  Understanding The Language Levels
-  Understanding The Nature Of Writing
-  Understanding 21st Century English
-  Understanding Concepts And Issues
-  Understanding Language Change

These can be found by following Resources>Key Documents>Resources for Teachers.

GCE English Language and Literature:

All the materials from previous Professional Learning events can be found on the AS/A level English Language and Literature site. Click on 'Training' from the menu and then on 'Materials from previous events' to access these. There is also a handy link on the subject-specific page to some of our key resources for this qualification. Click on the 'Resources' tab from the menu to access this page.

A set of Blended Learning Resources have been written to support teachers and learners with the AS/A level qualification. These aim to support students in developing their understanding of different aspects of the language and literature course. There are resources on:

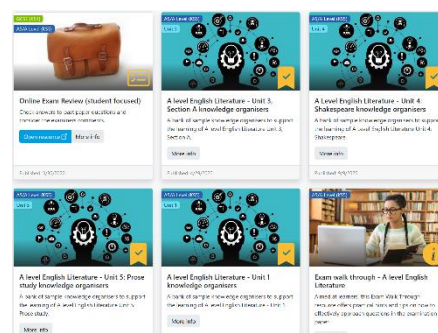

- Linguistic and Literary Analysis
- Creative Writing
- Connecting Texts
- Spoken Language

These have been developed so that they can support learners who are either working independently or as part of a curated programme put together by teachers to try to cover some learning remotely. They can also be used in the classroom and have been written by senior examiners and current teachers.

GCE English Literature:

All the materials from previous Professional Learning events can be found on the AS/A level English Literature site. Click on 'Training' from the menu and then on 'Materials from previous events' to access these. They include the materials focusing on poetry from autumn 2019 to support you with Unit 2 and Unit 3. There is also a handy link on the subject-specific page to some of our key resources for this qualification. Click on the 'Resources' tab from the menu to access this page.

On the Digital Resources site, you will find resources for Blended Learning, Exam walk-throughs and Knowledge Organisers as well as resources focused on some of the key skills required for studying English Literature.

Blended Learning Resources have been written to support teachers and learners with the AS/A level qualification. These aim to support students in developing their understanding of different aspects of prose, poetry and drama, either working independently or as part of a curated programme put together by teachers to try to cover some learning remotely. They can also be used in the classroom and have been written by our Principal Examiners.

Written by Principal Examiners, the Exam walk through resources offer practical hints and tips on how to effectively approach questions in each examination paper. Using questions from 2019 exam papers, the PowerPoint with audio and script in the notes will walk you through a mock examination paper, helping students revise and practise useful exam techniques. Students can complete the “mock” in a single sitting, tackle one or two questions at a time or revisit some parts of the presentation to reinforce their learning. These could be used for revision or as a starting point for creating your own knowledge organisers.

In addition to those resources on the dedicated website, centres will find very useful material on the WJEC secure website, such as:

- previous A level CPD material: including lots of practical, classroom-focused activities
- NEA Standardising Material: videos and commentaries to help internal standardisation of NEA work
- past papers and mark schemes.

3. Professional Learning 2024

Many of you have already attended one of our free online exam feedback Professional Learning events in the autumn term. We are now looking forward to seeing you in person at one of our face-to-face events in the next few months. We know how essential these meetings are not only to receive further feedback on the summer exam series, guidance and tips for the upcoming exam series and to meet and ask questions to senior and principal examiners, but also to share ideas and resources with teaching colleagues. We hope to see you at one of these events soon:

GCE English Language and Literature: Teaching Poetry for WJEC AS/A level English Literature

6 February – Cardiff

21 February – Llandudno

The focus will be on the following:

- improving your teaching of poetry for Unit 2 and Unit 3
- how to increase learner confidence and engagement with poetry
- how to improve learner responses to exam questions requiring the reading and analysis of poetry
- exploring approaches to dealing with comparing unseen poetry in Unit 3.

4. NEA

A number of you have been in touch to voice your concerns regarding candidates' possible use of AI (Artificial Intelligence) in their NEA.

You can find detailed guidance in the document JCO AI Use in Assessments: Protecting the Integrity of Qualifications. Below is a summary of this guidance and suggestions to centres about preventing the misuse of AI in WJEC GCE English Language / English Language and Literature / English Literature NEA.

What is AI misuse in NEA?

AI misuse is candidates' use of AI tools, such as ChatGPT, to obtain and create content used in work produced for non-examined assessments which lead towards their qualification.

Any use of AI to create content for assessment is not permitted. Candidates must submit work for assessment which is their own, original work and which applies the knowledge, skills and understanding developed through their English qualifications. Any use of AI which means candidates have not independently produced their own, original work is malpractice.

Any work that is created by AI will not form part of the candidate's assessment and must be declared. Where it has been used to gather information, such as a summary of an article or an essay, candidates must provide a full acknowledgement of the content that was generated with the full name of the AI source and date the content was generated, e.g., ChatGPT 3.5 (<https://openai.com/blog/chatgpt/>), 25/01/2023. Centres and candidates should be aware that poor referencing constitutes malpractice.

Whose responsibility is it to mitigate against AI use in NEA?

It is the centre's responsibility to ensure malpractice policies and procedures are updated and implemented. Assessors must not accept work which is not the candidate's own.

Ultimately, the Head of Centre has responsibility for ensuring candidates do not submit inauthentic work.

JCQ guidance states that centres should do the following:

- Explain the importance of candidates submitting their own independent work.
- Ensure the centre's malpractice policy includes misuse of AI.
- Reinforce to candidates the significance of their electronic declaration where they confirm their work is their own.
- Teachers are also required to authenticate candidate's work before it can be submitted for assessment.

Suggestions to prevent misuse of AI in NEA

Centres are advised to refer to qualifications' specifications' information about assessment evidence and authentication for information about what is required to appropriately authenticate work.

JCQ and WJEC recommend centres and teachers do the following to help prevent the misuse of AI in assessment:

- Consider restricting access to online AI tools on centre devices and networks.
- Allocate time for sufficient portions of written work (e.g., essays, creative writing, investigations) to be done in class under direct supervision.
- Allocate time for sufficient portions of preparatory work to be done in class under direct supervision.
- Examine intermediate / planning stages of production work and keep evidence of planning / draft work.
- Investigate instances where candidates produce work which is different to their usual style or quality.
- Do not accept work for assessment which it is suspected has been created by AI tools.

As a result of the development of AI, the cover sheets for each subject have been strengthened:

A level NEA Cover Sheet – English Language

A level NEA Checklist – English Language

A level NEA Cover Sheet – English Language and Literature

A level NEA Checklist – English Language and Literature

A level NEA Cover Sheet – English Literature

A level NEA Checklist – English Literature

We would like to remind centres that all non-examination assessment marks need to be submitted on the WJEC Internal Assessment Mark Input System (IAMIS) in sufficient time to generate the sample and despatch to the external moderator by 15 May 2024. Along with your sample please send the cover sheets and NEA checklists available on the subject pages.

5. Opportunities

Poetry By Heart

To improve your learners' engagement with poetry, why not make use of and take part in the 2024 Poetry By Heart competition. Poetry By Heart is a national poetry speaking competition for schools and colleges. It's also a website for teaching and learning about poetry – by heart and out loud, and with plenty of choice for young people to explore poems and find the ones that speak to them. Taking part in Poetry By Heart is all about developing confidence with poetry in an enjoyable, accessible and engaging way that leads to its life-long enjoyment.

You can register and receive the Poetry By Heart competition-in-a-box which includes a calendar, posters and further resources for your classroom on their website.

ESU

Many of you will be familiar with the work of the English Speaking Union. They work with young people and the teachers to improve oracy skills and cross-cultural understanding, and run fun, games-led debate and public speaking curricula and workshops which encourage students to discuss a wide range of topical issues with an open mind.

They guide schools on using oracy in the classroom and on setting up and maintaining their own debate clubs; and provide teachers with a range of Continuing Professional Development opportunities in the fields of speech and debate. Nationally and internationally, they also run public speaking and debating competitions to hone the skills they provide, and offer a variety of cultural exchanges for students, teachers and professionals alike to build relationships and share ideas across communities and countries.

The skills which they develop are also integral to developing the creativity and structured thinking which we would expect to see in candidates' written work in their exams. You can find more information on their website.

Theatre

Some of our set texts are being performed in the coming months. Seeing and experiencing a live performance can not only bring these texts to life but also help to engage them in thinking about how meaning is created. Many productions offer significant discounts for school groups or for those under 25.

King Lear – Almeida Theatre, London \(8 Feb – 30 Mar\)

Othello – Sam Wanamaker Playhouse \(Globe Theatre\), London \(19 Jan – 13 April\)

Henry IV, Part 1 – Noel Coward Theatre, London \(1 April – 22 June\)

Remember that you can also access a wealth of free live theatre online through registering with the National Theatre. Once you register, you are not only able to stream performances of a variety of plays, you are also able to access learning resources, including short films, synopses, key learnings and rehearsal diaries, enriching the experience of the plays in the classroom.

6. Key dates

Key dates for the coming year have been posted on the WJEC website under 'Key Documents' > 'Key dates' on the relevant subject page.
