GCSE English Literature in Wales Unit 1 January 2017
Examination Series - Instructions for centres

WJEC will be arranging for completed Unit 1 examination scripts to be electronically scanned in order to facilitate on-line marking by our examiners.

After the Unit 1 examination has been completed, centres will be asked to despatch candidates’ scripts directly to a designated scanning bureau, rather than to a specified individual examiner.

The front cover of the examination paper and the specially designed pink 16 page answer booklet is different from previous series to conform to the design criteria specified by our scanning contractor. The new-style 16 page answer booklet will be sent directly to centres from WJEC. It is imperative that this special stationery is used for Unit 1.

If ANY other stationery is used, the scripts will not be able to be scanned and this will lead to serious problems in the marking process.

Examples of the front cover of the question paper and a copy of the new style 16 page answer booklet are included in this document. We recommend showing these to your candidates in advance of the examination to ensure they are familiar with them before sitting the examination.

Candidates must conform to the instructions on the front cover of both the question paper and the answer booklet. All candidates must fully complete the grid on the front cover of the answer booklet, especially the paper unit code e.g. 3720U10-1, 3720UA0-1. It is also important that the question number is written in the correct place in the answer booklet.

Candidates will also be instructed to leave at least two lines between questions.
